NYSUT RC 12

Damn Yankees!!

Make your New Year's Resolution to see Damn Yankees on Broadway!

NYSUT RC 12 has reserved 40 mid-orchestra tickets for the 1:00pm, Wednesday, April 28, 2027, matinee at the Marquis Theater. Damn Yankees debuted on Broadway in 1955. See the latest revival, starring the following:

NEIL PATRICK HARRIS as Applegate. (from Doogie Howser to Tony award winner!)

JULIANNE HOUGH as Lola. (from DWTS to Prime-Time Emmy Award winner!)

AUSTIN SCOTT as Young Joe. (Title role in Hamilton on Broadway after starring in the title role in the National Tour)

The cost of a mid-orchestra seat is $200. The box office is requesting payment by November 23. I realize not everyone can plan that far ahead for April. However, it's best to reserve your ticket now. If your circumstances change, we will try to make refunds available. If interested please send a check for $200, payable to NYSUT RC 12 to the address below.

As always, additional costs (bus, etc.) will be determined when the number of participants is confirmed. Pickups will be the usual: Amsterdam and Schenectady.

For now, reserve a ticket.
